Case Manager's Message

It has been a pleasure to work with all our participants as they go through the SoCal program. They have shown fortitude, perseverance, strength, and focus. I'm extremely proud and honored to see everyone excel, not just in the program but in life as well. The one thing that stands out for me as a case manager is their display of strength. I make it my business to explain and encourage each participant with this quote from Bob Marley, "You'll never know how strong you are, until being strong is the only option you have."
