This week we will focus on Chapter 3 of
"Banking on Freedom" by Shennete
Garrett-Scott

Chapter 3: "Let Us Have a Bank"

What barriers did Blacks interested in opening banks or getting into the banking industry face? What solutions did they devise to work around these limitation?

Was the "vener of civility" an effective way to manage race relations in the Jim Crow South? How did the St. Luke Bank respond to the realities and circumstances of its customer base?

Excerpt from Juneteenth Written by Rebecca Dupas

Freedom and allyship come in stages
Juneteenth awareness is about truth and reconciliation about looking forward to reclaim our time, our history, and our greatness to grab hold of the beautiful future that awaits us Because though barriers still exist
we come more equipped!
we stand on the shoulders of warrior women
we show up with Harriet Tubman's courage and Sojourner Truth's vision
We sprinkle in some of Maya Angelou's wisdom and Michele Obama's charisma
the stamina of Fannie Lou Hamer
of Opal Lee
...this holiday's creator

Our ancestors ran the race and now we finish it
We have beauty, brains, and business acumen
And then...
Juneteenth bring us a promise for equality
So let's vow to chase our dreams and show up as our authentic selves
EVERYDAY- without apology!

Messages from our team

Professor Carr

Here is one of my favorite poems

I To fling my arms wide
In some place of the sun,
To whirl and to dance
Till the white day is done.
Then rest at cool evening
Beneath a tall tree
While night comes on gently,
Dark like me—
That is my dream!
To fling my arms wide
In the face of the sun,
Dance! Whirl! Whirl!
Till the quick day is done.
Rest at pale evening . . .
A tall, slim tree . . .
Night coming tenderly
Black like me.
-Langston Hughes

Professor Brady

Our Fall SoCal cohort has started with two entrepreneurs, Stefani, a baker, and Archie, an artist. These two Bright young stars are interested in setting the world on fire with their talents, but first, they are tackling the SoCal agenda, and I am happy to say that they are both doing great. Please stay tuned for more on their businesses and their SoCal successes.

Maria, Grant Writer:

“All we have to do is decide what to do with the time that is given us.”

-J.R.R Tolkein

Angeleck, Intake Specialist/Case Manager:

I've just started my last year in undergrad and would like to share the following poem.

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all up hill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest if you must—but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As every one of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out;
Don't give up, though the pace seems slow—
You may succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man,
Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup,
And he learned too late, when the night slipped
down,
How close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out—
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit—
It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.

-Edgar Guest
