Recently our President and Founder, Wanda Rogers attended the SAY San Diego Mock Interviews for high school students preparing to enter the workforce. Below is a message from a student to Ms. Rogers

“Dear Miss Rogers:
I am writing to you to thank you for taking the time to interview me. I learned a lot from the experience and it was very helpful for me. During the interview I was very nervous and I felt that I didn’t come off confidently, but after the interview and through your feedback I realized I need to practice and improve my delivery skills. Additionally, I feel that you gave me very good advice and that made me feel more prepared for future interviews. I will take this advice into serious consideration and work on ways to improve eye contact and professional communication. You provided me with a very good example of how I need to be for future interviews. Again, I really want to thank you for everything you did and putting in the effort to give me the beneficial feedback.”

This week we will focus on Chapter 4 of "Banking on Freedom" by Shennete
Garrett-Scott

Chapter 4: "Rituals of Risk and Respectability"

How did the St. Luke Bank use its "productive potential" to improve Black women's economic lives? Consider the present day. What role should financial institutions like banks play in people's everyday lives?

What are some stereotypes you have heard about how different racial and ethnic groups handle money? About women? How might these assumptions affect people's access to credit, financial literacy, and wealth building?

Excerpt from Juneteenth Written by Rebecca Dupas

Freedom and allyship come in stages Juneteenth awareness is about truth and reconciliation about looking forward to reclaim our time, our history, and our greatness to grab hold of the beautiful future that awaits us Because though barriers still exist we come more equipped!
we stand on the shoulders of warrior women we show up with Harriet Tubman's courage and Sojourner Truth's vision We sprinkle in some of Maya Angelou's wisdom and Michele Obama's charisma the stamina of Fannie Lou Hamer of Opal Lee
...this holiday's creator

Our ancestors ran the race and now we finish it
We have beauty, brains, and business acumen
And then...
Juneteenth bring us a promise for equality So let's vow to chase our dreams and show up as our authentic selves EVERYDAY- without apology!

Messages from our team

Wanda Rogers, President and Founder

“When people stop believing in God, they don’t believe in nothing, they believe in anything.”

Maria, Grant Writer:

I would like to share my favorite bible verse this month:

“Whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things.” Philippians 4:8

Angeleck, Intake Specialist/Case Manager:

“A thankful heart is not only the greatest virtue, but the parent of all the other virtues.”
-Cicero

Marni Litvack, Program Manager

“If I am not for myself, who will be for me? But if I am only for myself, what am I? And if not now, when?”
